ITALIAN GOLD THINKER

Not only do we distribute the best that Italy's gold jewelry has to offer, we also develop our own collections to be able to provide exclusive designs that can reflect our own interpretation of the latest trends. Starting from plate and laser-cut production, our collections over the years have expanded to cover also different manufacturing technologies and materials like the use of natural stones.

STOCK ALWAYS AVAILABLE

Our product selection is the result of a careful and constant research among the best Italian producers. The “always available” jewelry is subject to frequent update according to the most recent trends. Besides, our clients can cherry pick through our stock of jewelry according to their needs. Lastly, we can provide media support to incentivize promotion and ease the sell-out. These are the main reasons that make us a perfect fit for jewelry retailers.
